

Chief, London Bureau
Chief, Mediterranean Bureau (Cyprus)
Assistant Chief, Mediterranean Bureau (Cairo)

14 December 1948

Chief, FBI

Editorial Personnel

1. For your information, the following personnel actions for editorial personnel are planned by this office and will be made effective as indicated:

a. [redacted], CAF-7 Editorial Specialist, Departmental Office, Washington, D. C., will be reassigned to the London Bureau as a CAF-8 Editorial Specialist. Date of arrival in London on or about 20 January 1949.

25X1

b. [redacted], CAF-11 Editorial Specialist, Departmental Office, Washington, D. C., will be reassigned to the London Bureau in his present grade. Date of arrival in London on or about 20 February 1949.

25X1

c. Following the arrival in London of [redacted] on or about 25 January 1949 [redacted], CAF-11 Editorial Specialist, London Bureau, will be reassigned in present grade to the Mediterranean Bureau, Cairo, Egypt, with later reassignment in present grade to the Mediterranean Bureau on the Island of Cyprus upon activation of the new station, exact date to be determined.

25X1

25X1

d. [redacted], CAF-11 Editorial Specialists, London Bureau, will be reassigned in present grade to the Mediterranean Bureau on the Island of Cyprus upon activation of the new station, date of arrival on Cyprus to be determined.

25X1

e. [redacted], CAF-11 Editorial Specialist, London Bureau, at present on TDY in the United States, will return for duty with the London Bureau on or about 1 March 1949.

25X1

f. Following the return to London of [redacted] [redacted], CAF-11 Editorial Specialist, London Bureau, will be placed on TDY in the United States for the purpose of reorientation and leave.

25X1

25X1

This document part of classified integrated file. NAME CHECK required prior to individual classification action.

LBS:haq

CONFIDENTIAL